

DEAR MEMBERS AND FRIENDS:

OUR MISSION

As a membership association, the Council of Michigan Foundations' (CMF) mission is to increase, enhance and improve philanthropy in Michigan.

OUR VALUES

CMF's work is guided by the following values:

We build relationships to last.

We strive for diversity and inclusion in our staff, our Board and our membership.

We act as a servant leader for organized philanthropy.

We seek, develop and share knowledge about philanthropy.

We strive for excellence in everything we do.

OUR PURPOSES

Advocate: To represent the interests and concerns of Michigan grantmakers with state and national government.

Educate: To support effective grantmaking by providing educational programs and resources.

Network: To provide the means for the regular sharing of ideas and experiences among grantmakers and with grantseekers.

Increase: To assist with the growth of organized philanthropy in Michigan.

Lead: To facilitate and support collaborative philanthropic responses to critical needs in Michigan.

Promote: To help Michigan residents understand and appreciate the role of philanthropy.

We are pleased to highlight some of the many services the Council of Michigan Foundations (CMF) has offered to our members in the past year. As a mission-driven organization, CMF exists solely to serve its members and advance giving in Michigan. The Strategic Plan, approved by the Board in February 2002, continues to guide our work and the accomplishments shared here.

On the Board level, this was a year of significant transition with two founding trustees, Margaret Ann (Ranny) Riecker, President of the Herbert H. and Grace A. Dow Foundation, and Gil Hudson, Chair of the Hudson-Webber Foundation, retiring after a combined 45 plus years of service. Appreciation for service was also extended to Trustees Richard Rappleye then of the C.S. Mott Foundation and now the Kresge Foundation and Don Parfet from the Donald and Ann Parfet Family Foundation.

We welcomed new Trustees: David Egner from the Hudson-Webber Foundation, Russell Gabier from the Irving S. Gilmore Foundation, Phillip Peters from the C.S. Mott Foundation, and Peggy Thompson from the Herbert H. and Grace A. Dow Foundation. Earlier in the year the Board appointed Heath Meriwether from the Community Foundation for Southeastern Michigan to complete the term of Alan Gilmour.

We are pleased that our auditor, PricewaterhouseCoopers, has again provided an unqualified opinion on the audited financial statements. We have been careful stewards and have done some significant belt-tightening, particularly in recognition of the challenging economy. As a result, we were able to postpone a dues increase until April of 2004—nine years without a change—a new record in our history.

With questions of accountability being raised by members of Congress and a significant turnover in our State Legislature, CMF has been busy working on your behalf helping lawmakers understand the value of philanthropy to our communities and the people of Michigan. Your participation and support is much appreciated. We look forward to continuing to serve you in 2003-2004 and to welcoming you to the 31st Annual Conference, November 10-12, 2003 in Grand Rapids.

MEMBERSHIP COMPOSITION

Membership in the Council of Michigan Foundations provides a wide array of benefits. For more information, contact Jeri Fischer, Director, Membership & Special Projects.

616.842.7080 OR VISIT WWW.CMIF.ORG

EDUCATION

More than 30 high quality programs, promoting principles and best practices for effective grantmaking, were offered on governance, finance and investments, administration, communication, public policy, grantmaking, fund development for community foundations, and other topics. Highlights include:

Philanthropy is a family affair for sisters Judy Rumelhart, Lynn White and Ranny Riecker—all trustees of the Harry A. & Margaret D. Towsley Foundation

- Three “sold-out” courses from The Center for Corporate Citizenship at Boston College for corporate grantmakers
- Annual CEO and Program Officer Retreats attended by over 100 community foundation staff
- The Fourth Annual Family Foundations Retreat at the Grand Hotel on Mackinac Island attended by over 150 participants—from toddlers to grandparents—featuring noted communications expert, Michael Brandwein

NETWORKING

Several networking events were offered for grantmakers by foundation type and by funding area, regionally, statewide, and at out-of-state conferences.

Highlights include:

- Our first Family Foundations Summer Receptions at Walloon Lake and Higgins Lake
- The 30th Annual Conference, held for the first time on Mackinac Island for more than 600 grantmakers, which offered expanded opportunities, including one-on-one advice from national experts on topics ranging from law to governance. To volunteer for the 2004 Annual Conference Program Committee, contact Vicki Rosenberg, Vice President & COO, at 616.842.7080

WORKING WITH GOVERNMENT

Working closely with members, CMF continued its efforts to help policy makers in Lansing and Washington understand the contributions foundations make to our communities and to encourage the passage of legislation that supports charitable giving. Highlights include:

Congresswoman Candice Miller (center) meets with CMF staff and members.

- Removal of onerous reporting requirements on corporate giving from the Sarbanes-Oxley Bill through successful advocacy done in collaboration with the Council on Foundations
- Co-publication of Michigan in Brief, a guide to over 40 public policy topics of concern to residents and elected representatives

- Work with the Michigan Congressional delegation on the CARE Act, which calls for reducing the excise tax on foundations to a flat 1% and adding the IRA Charitable Rollover

“Bringing The Center for Corporate Citizenship at Boston College workshops to Michigan is another example of how CMF provides valuable training at a savings to members.”

LORNA UTLEY, President
General Motors Foundation

INFORMATION

Customized research within 72-hours is a CMF tradition. In response to member requests, new information resources have been added.

Highlights include:

- E-NEWS, a monthly electronic newsletter for members only, providing time sensitive news, information on upcoming events, and links to new reports and resources. Contact Mary Torgeson, Communications Associate, at 616.842.7080 to be added to the distribution list

- Our redesigned website—www.cmif.org—featuring more than 400 sample documents, a searchable member roster, an on-line librarian, and much more. Within four-weeks of launching the site, visitors viewed over 40,000 pages and downloaded more than 3,000 publications. Contact Gail Powers-Schaub, Director of Information Services at 616.842.7080 for your member password

RESOURCES

Producing new resources in response to member needs, and making them available at low or no cost, is another on-going CMF activity. Highlights include:

- Creating & Managing A Family Foundation - 32 Sample Documents
This popular resource has been updated to offer bylaws, investment policies, conflict of interest policies, and more. Available to members for $35

- Guide to Creating a Successful Matching Gift Program
Downloadable for free from the CMF website, this unique guide answers questions most frequently asked about establishing a matching gift program—from the kinds of organizations to match, to how often to pay the match. The Guide also includes sample forms from several Michigan companies and foundations

SPECIAL SERVICES

After extensive research, CMF has added new special services as requested by members. Highlights include:

- Access to health, vision and dental benefits from Blue Cross Blue Shield through a partnership with the Small Business Association of Michigan (SBAM). The partnership also provides savings on: life insurance, short and long-term disability, credit card processing, overnight package service and long distance phone service. Your CMF dues cover the SBAM membership fee. Contact Dave Lindberg, Vice President of Finance & Administration at 616.842.7080 with questions

COLLABORATIONS

CMF's history of facilitating collaborations with grantmakers and with the State of Michigan continued during 2002-2003. Highlights include CMF's agreement to serve as fiscal agent for two new initiatives supported by members:

Karen Aldridge-Eason, Foundation Liaison and Nannette Bowler, Director, Family Independence Agency

- The Land Use Leadership Council, a bi-partisan group created by Governor Granholm to recommend policies that will minimize the impact of current land use trends in Michigan
- The Foundation Liaison to Governor Granholm, the first state level cabinet position dedicated to philanthropy. Karen Aldridge-Eason, Program Director, Charles Stewart Mott Foundation, was selected for this post

"Every time I make a request of CMF, the response is timely and extremely helpful!"

RANDY MAIERS, President & CEO,
Community Foundation of St. Clair County

HIGHLIGHTS OF 2002-2003 MEMBERSHIP BENEFITS

GROWING PHILANTHROPY

To encourage the establishment of foundations and corporate giving programs and new contributions to community foundations, CMF reaches out to new donors and engages the next generation. Highlights include:

- Information on foundation management sent to over 140 newly formed foundations
- The 11th Annual Summer Leadership Conference at Central Michigan University for 135 youth grantmakers from Michigan and five other states. 2002 Mawby Summer Interns Dan Herrick from Holland and Krysta Oeschle from Jackson produced the first Ethics Bowl for Youth as the Conference centerpiece. For more information, visit www.youthgrantmakers.org

- The addition of a youth grantmaking experience to the popular Family Foundations Retreat. In 2002, youth ages eight to seventeen performed community service, made site visits, and awarded grants for youth programs to Mackinac Island nonprofits

"Helping new family foundations and the next generation is a vital role CMF plays in keeping Michigan's tradition of giving strong."

JULIE F. CUMMINGS

CMF Vice Chair, Private Foundations & Trustee
The Max M. & Marjorie S. Fisher Foundation

OUR SUPPORTING ORGANIZATIONS

The Council of Michigan Foundations continues to operate two supporting organizations, i.e., separate nonprofit corporations with Boards appointed by CMF and including CMF Trustees.

MICHIGAN COMMUNITY FOUNDATIONS' VENTURES (MCFV)

MCFV's primary projects are the Community Foundations' Ventures Products Fund and the Community Foundations' Research and Development Incubator. MCFV is supported by Michigan community foundations, the W.K. Kellogg Foundation, the Charles Stewart Mott Foundation, and the Council on Foundations Community Foundations Leadership Team. Highlights include:

- Regional Team-Up Grants provide one-to-one matching grants to teams of community foundations for marketing collaborations that reduce operating costs and increase asset growth. Using products of the Venture Products Fund, the team covering the counties of Kent, Newaygo, Ottawa, and Muskegon produced a joint Cable TV commercial placed on CNBC

- The Community Foundation R & D Incubator released innovative new marketing tools to a national audience at the 2002 Council on Foundations' (COF) Community Foundations Conference and provided follow-up training on the customization and implementation of these tools. The Incubator also completed Tools for Giving and the IRA Charitable Rollover—two portfolios of marketing and communications tools scheduled for release at the 2003 COF Community Foundations Conference through the National Marketing Action Team (NMAT)

- The Marketing Readiness Campaign provides training to build community foundations marketing capabilities

MCFV is chaired by Jack Hopkins, President & CEO, Kalamazoo Community Foundation. To learn more, contact Donnell Mersereau, Director, Community Foundations at 616.842.7080.

MICHIGAN AIDS FUND (MAF)

An estimated 15,500 Michigan residents are living with HIV or AIDS, and there are over 1,000 new infections each year. AIDS still threatens every Michigan community. Now in its 14th year, the Michigan AIDS Fund

MICHIGAN TOBACCO SETTLEMENT PARTNERSHIP

CMF is now in the fourth year of distributing tobacco settlement funds to 65 certified community foundations statewide. Funds are regranted to healthy youth and healthy seniors projects with the help of local advisory committees. To date, over $21 million has been distributed statewide with over $10 million permanently endowed. Despite the state budget challenges, the Governor and Legislature have agreed to continue supporting the Partnership in the 2004 fiscal year. For information, contact Barbara Dryer, Grants Manager at 616.842.7080.

LEARNING TO GIVE

Through www.learningtogive.org, teachers, parents and others now have free access to over 600 teacher-developed, standards-based K-12 philanthropy lessons, 100 briefing papers and other resources. Twenty-six Michigan schools have agreed to teach LTG lessons at every grade level. Initial evaluation findings

(MAF) continues as a unique public private partnership of individuals, foundations, corporations and the State of Michigan through its goals of Prevention and Early Intervention, Organizational Effectiveness, and Public Engagement.

Highlights of how these goals are being addressed through MAF's fundraising, grant making and educational efforts include:

- A unique Prevention Initiative Partnership with the Michigan Department of Community Health, which funds more than 20 organizations state-wide for prevention activities; the MPowerment Project, a new science-based intervention focusing on highly vulnerable populations, and the state-wide Speakers Bureau
- Awarding more than 29 grants throughout the State totaling $659,550 to community-based organizations providing HIV/AIDS prevention and care to those at risk indicate that use of these lessons contributes to classroom management and civility—an important and unanticipated benefit. And, through a new partnership with Grand Valley State University's Johnson Center for Philanthropy and Nonprofit Management and School of Education, LTG will prepare tomorrow's educators to teach about philanthropy and the nonprofit sector. For more information, visit www.learningtogive.org or contact Kathy Agard, Executive Director at 231.767.3100.

MICHIGAN IDA PARTNERSHIP

In just over two years, the Michigan IDA Partnership has awarded over 1,100 Individual Development Accounts to more than 50 program sites throughout the state to help low-income working families with home ownership, higher education and small business development. To date, 87 families have completed the program and purchased their first home. The Partnership—the nation's largest IDA demonstration project—receives support from foundations and corporations which enable it to leverage TANF and other federal funds through the Michigan Family Independence Agency. For more information, contact Eric Muschler, Executive Director at 734.542.3946.

HOMELESSNESS PREVENTION PROJECT

The Michigan State Housing Development Authority and CMF support partnerships and collaborations between 28 community foundations and local Continuum of Care committees to hold community summits on homelessness prevention and to create permanent endowments for prevention programs. To learn more, contact Jeri Fischer, Director of Membership & Special Projects at 616.842.7080.

GREAT LAKES COMMUNITY FOUNDATIONS ENVIRONMENTAL COLLABORATIVE

Community foundations in 17 shoreline communities around the Great Lakes Basin, including six in Michigan, have completed community meetings on the environment and are now in the final stages of matching funds from the Great Lakes Protection Fund for environmental endowments. Contact Sheila Leahy, Project Consultant, at 847.735.1616 to learn more about the results of Phase III of the Collaborative that ends December 2003.

OUR ENDOWMENT FUNDS

We are grateful to members for helping to create and contribute to CMF's eight endowment funds. Income from these funds makes it possible for CMF to respond quickly to member needs and opportunities. Highlights include the creation of:

- The Margaret Ann (Ranny) Riecker Leadership Fund with a one million dollar endowment, announced in a surprise ceremony at CMF's 2002 Annual Conference. The Fund recognizes Ranny's 26 plus years of service as a founding Trustee of CMF and her dedication to philanthropy. It will support leadership activities that help CMF accomplish its mission
- The Community Foundation Technology Fund, established in February 2003 from the accumulated interest earnings on the W.K. Kellogg Foundation Computer Grant, will support the ongoing technology needs of community foundations

The other Endowment Funds are:

William W. Allen Fund

To support government relations work on state and federal legislation and regulations affecting philanthropy

Dorothy A. Johnson Education Fund

To support nationally recognized speakers at the Annual Conference and special training on principles and practices for grantmaking

Russell G. Mawby Fund to Increase and Improve Philanthropy

To aid new collaborative opportunities and special publications that will advance the field of philanthropy

Community Foundations Endowment Fund

To support ongoing technical assistance to community foundations

Russell and Ruth Mawby Fund for Kids

To support summer internships for the alumni of community foundation youth advisory committees

MCFYP (Michigan Community Foundations' Youth Project) Endowment Fund

To support ongoing technical assistance to Michigan community foundations youth advisory committees

On March 31, 2003, the combined market value of these endowment funds was $9,332,038.

TREASURER'S REPORT

Year Ended March 31, 2003

PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP has issued an unqualified opinion on the combined Financial Statements of CMF and its two supporting organizations for the years ended March 31, 2003 & 2002. The Combined Statements of Activity and Changes in Net Assets presented in the Annual Report have been derived from the audited financial statements, which have been modified to reflect the detailed expenses of the Council of Michigan Foundations endowment funds, Michigan Community Foundations Ventures and the Michigan AIDS Fund. A copy of the audited financial statements is available for public inspection at the Council of Michigan Foundations' office in Grand Haven, Michigan.
